

B

IN THE DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR TULSA COUNTY
STATE OF OKLAHOMA

[Redacted])
)
 Petitioner,)
) Case No. FD 2009-1903 vs.)
) Docket D
 [Redacted],)
) Judge Sparkman Respondent.)

DISTRICT COURT
FILED

DEC 11 2013

SALLY HOWE SMITH, COURT CLERK
STATE OF OKLA: TULSA COUNTY

PETITIONER'S MOTION TO MODIFY

Petitioner [Redacted] for his Motion to Modify the parties' Joint Custody Plan entered on May 5, 2010, states:

1. Petitioner and Respondent are the parents of three (3) minor children, to wit: R.F. Pritzlaff, born April 8, 2001; [Redacted] born August 8, 2003, [Redacted] born November 26, 2005.

2. The parties' marriage was dissolved by Decree of Divorce and Dissolution of Marriage on May 5, 2010. The parties were granted joint custody of the minor children.

3. On November 10, 2010, Petitioner filed a Motion to Modify child support, which was resolved by Order Modifying Child Support on May 2, 2011.

4. These orders have not been vacated, modified or set aside and remain in full force and effect.

5. It is in the best interests of the minor children to modify the Joint Custody Plan as follows:

- a. Order Petitioner to be the primary custodian of the minor children;
- b. Modify the parties' visitation of the minor children to week on and week off all year round unless modified by the Parenting Coordinator or by further

DEC 11 PM 3:07
SALLY HOWE SMITH
COURT CLERK
DISTRICT COURT

agreement of the parties with a visitation week beginning on 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending at 6:00 p.m. on the following Friday. Visitation beginning times may be modified by agreement of both parties via the Parent Coordinator;

- c. Eliminate the need for the parties to obtain written consent of the other for a trip that will exceed ten (10) days;
- d. Allow for the parties to have custodial periods during the other parties' visitation period as follows: Each parent will be entitled to 14 non-custodial vacation days. Said days shall be defined as one parent requiring vacation time during the custodial parent's scheduled time. Not more than seven consecutive non-custodial vacation days may be taken at one time and no party shall have custody of the children longer than three consecutive weeks. If one parent needs to take the children on vacation on non-custodial days, said parent shall provide a written notice to the other parent 30 days in advance of first vacation day. Consecutive non-custodial vacation days may exceed seven only if documentation is provided to the other parent indicating the entire vacation will be outside of the continental United States or agreed upon by both parents under extraordinary circumstances;
- e. Require the custodial parent to provide the non-custodial parent trip itinerary, dates, names and contact information when the custodial parent takes the minor children out of state;
- f. Order that the parties shall not interfere or allow any interference or distractions during a parties' telephone communications with a minor child;

- g. Prohibit the use of speaker phones for telephone communication, and direct communication to the children via their cell phones, calling or texting should not be permitted between the non-custodial parent and the children unless it is an emergency situation or the custodial parent has given permission to the non-custodial parent for said direct communication;
- h. Order that non-custodial parent be notified prior to any of the minor children spending the night with anyone other than the custodial parent, and further the custodial parent shall provide telephone numbers and addresses of where the children shall be staying;
- i. Both parties shall be included on any communications with the minor children's schools;
- j. The custodial parent must notify the non-custodial parent about any sickness or medical treatment or services;
- k. If medical or dental appointments are required for the children, appointments shall be made so both parents can attend the appointment(s). No medical or dental appointments shall be made unilaterally by either party without communication between both parties to scheduling the appointment;
- l. Both parents shall utilize pharmacies included in the Petitioner's medical insurance plan. Secondary insurance held by the Respondent shall be used for medical, dental, and prescription drugs to offset out of pocket costs for both parties.
- m. The parties should be ordered to split all non-medical expenses, including extracurricular activities and daycare equally.

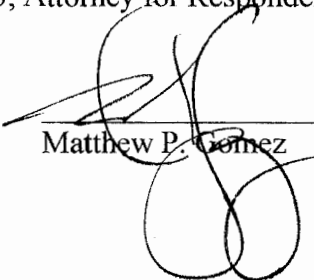

6. The Court should revise the Holiday Schedule as follows:
 - a. Spring Break: Alternate years for the full Spring Break with the Father exercising physical custody on even years starting 2014;
 - b. July 4th: 9:00am until 11:00pm
 - c. Halloween: During the week: After work until 10:00pm. On weekend 4:00pm until 11:00pm.
 - d. Thanksgiving: 6:00pm the day school recesses to 6:00pm the Sunday before school resumes (in-state). 9:00pm the Sunday before school resumes (out of state). Times may be changed with mutual agreement by both parties as noted by the Parent Coordinator;
 - e. Christmas Break: Physical custody of the children over Christmas Break shall be split evenly between the number of nights starting the first night school lets out to the Sunday prior to school resuming at 6:00pm. Parties shall try to adhere to the every other week plan and if necessary, mediate this plan with the Parent Coordinator;
 - f. Special Visitation:
 - i. Father's Day, Mother's Day, Parents' Birthdays:
 - ii. 9:00am until 9:00pm if on weekend. 6:00pm until 9:00pm on weekdays.

7. The Court should make all further custody and visitation orders as it deems necessary and proper.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Petitioner [REDACTED] respectfully requests the Court grant the relief requested herein, for his attorney's fees and costs, and for all other relief at law and at equity to which he is entitled.

Certificate of Delivery

On the 1st day of December, 2013, I delivered and/or mailed, postage prepaid, by First Class U.S. Mail, and/or faxed a true copy of the foregoing instrument to Melissa Cornell, 320 S. Boston Ave., Ste. 1118, Tulsa, OK 74103, Attorney for Respondent.

Matthew P. Gomez