

(3) for the necessities of life.

Each party shall notify the other party of any proposed other expenditures, and shall account to the court for all such expenditures made after this injunction went into effect.

- F. Intentionally or knowingly damaging or destroying the tangible property of the parties, or either of them, including, but not limited to, any document that represents or embodies anything of value.
- G. Making a withdrawal for any purpose from any retirement, profit-sharing, pension, death, or other employee benefit plan or employee savings plan or from any individual retirement account or Keogh account.
- H. Withdrawing or borrowing in any manner all or any part of the cash surrender value of life insurance policies on either party or their child.
- I. Changing or in any manner altering the beneficiary designation on any life insurance policies of either party or any policy of their child.
- J. Canceling, altering, or in any manner affecting any casualty, automobile, homeowners', or health insurance policies insuring the parties' property or persons.
- K. Opening or diverting mail addressed to the other party.
- L. Signing or endorsing the other party's name on any negotiable instrument, check, or draft, such as tax refunds, insurance payments, and dividends, or attempting to negotiate any negotiable instruments payable to either party without the personal signature of the other party.
- M. Regarding insurance, both parties are ordered to maintain and keep in force all presently existing health, property, vehicle, homeowners', life and other insurance which you are presently carrying on any member of this family unit, or property or vehicle, and to cooperate as necessary in the filing and processing of claims. Any employer provided health insurance currently in existence shall remain in full force and effect for all family members.

3. ADDITIONAL TEMPORARY ORDERS REQUESTED. In addition to the aforesaid Automatic Temporary Injunction Orders, Petitioner requests entry of the following temporary orders, to wit:

- 4. Temporary custody of the said minor child should be awarded jointly to the parties.

5. Each party should be restrained and prohibited from involving the minor child in disputes between the parties in this litigation. Particularly, each party should be ordered not to speak negatively to, or within the hearing of, the minor child about the other party; each party should immediately notify the other of his/her changes of address and telephone numbers; each party should encourage the minor child's contact with the other party; and each party should insure all reasonable telephone communication between the minor child and the other parent while the minor child is in his/her physical possession. Neither party should ever prevent or interfere with the minor child from contacting the other parent.

6. Each party should be ordered not to remove the minor child from Oklahoma during the pendency of this action without the express written consent of the other party, and, in the event that the child is removed from this state without the express written consent of the other party or an order of this Court, the party so removing or authorizing the removal of a child from this state should be immediately deprived of all right to the physical possession of the child so removed and the other party should be immediately entitled to the physical possession of the child.

9. Each party should be restrained and prohibited from disposing of or encumbering any interest in property during the pendency of this action, whether such disposition be by sale, gift, encumbrance or otherwise, unless expressly agreed to by the parties or unless expressly ordered by the Court.

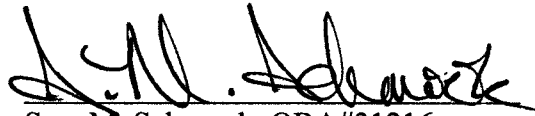

10. Each party should be restrained and prohibited from incurring any new debt which would add to the marital debt of the parties and/or which would increase the debt associated with any security interest upon of any existing property of the parties. In the event that either party makes any new debt hereafter, the same should be the separate debt of the party incurring the same.

11. Each party should be restrained and prohibited from altering any instrument which provides for disposition of any property upon death, including but not limited to any life insurance policy, trust, retirement interest, will, or other instrument or account which provides for the payment and/or disposition of interest upon the death of the owner of such interest.

12. Each party should be restrained and prohibited from altering and/or encumbering or otherwise dealing with any existing policy of insurance, whether such insurance be health, life, property, automobile, casualty or otherwise, and the policy/certificate owner should be required to maintain such insurance during the pendency of this action.

13. Respondent should be awarded possession and use of the marital residence and the property located therein and thereon, except the items of property which are specifically awarded to Petitioner's possession. Each party should be awarded all his or her clothing and personal effects.

Wherefore, Petitioner requests that upon hearing of this application that the Court issue the temporary orders above requested; and that Petitioner be granted all further ancillary and proper relief as is warranted by the evidence and circumstances presented.
