[REDACTED]

RESPONDENT.

Case No. [REDACTED]

DISTRICT COURT
FILED

MAY 15 2017

DON NEWBERRY, Court Clerk
STATE OF OKLA. TULSA COUNTY

CONSENT DECREE OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

NOW ON this 15 day of May, 2017, this matter comes on before this Court. Petitioner, [REDACTED] and her counsel of record Benjamin Aycock of JAMES R. GOTWALS AND ASSOCIATES, INC., appear in person; the Respondent, [REDACTED] and his counsel Ron M. Gore, of Cordell & Cordell, appear not, having evidenced their approval and agreement to the entry of this Decree by their signatures hereon.

The Court, having reviewed the file herein, having listened to the statements of counsel, having listened to the testimony of Petitioner being first duly sworn upon her oath, having heard the stipulations of the parties and based upon the approval of the parties and counsel for the parties, hereby enters the following findings and orders:

1. That it has jurisdiction over the parties, the child and the subject matter of this action, and that Petitioner and Respondent were and are actual residents in good faith of the State of Oklahoma for the six (6) months immediately preceding the filing of the Petition in this action and residents of Tulsa County for more than thirty (30) days immediately preceding the filing of the Petition.

2. That this is a consent decree such that the parties have negotiated and agreed to its terms and provisions as evidenced by their signatures hereon, waiving all objections and rights inconsistent with the terms hereof, and have asked this Court to make their agreement the order and judgment of this Court. The Court recognizes that this is a consent order, wherein each party, having adequate opportunity to discuss this matter with counsel of their choice, has knowingly, willingly, and intentionally waived such rights as they may have under the pleadings in this case, or under existing case or statutory law, specifically including the right to a hearing and trial on these issues, in order to resolve this matter in the manner hereinafter set forth. That both parties hereto have had full opportunity to discuss this matter and their rights with counsel. Further, to the extent that either party has waived any statutory rights to trial and hearing, etc., the Court finds that such waiver was knowingly entered into freely and voluntarily, and that each party agrees that the entry of this Decree and accompanying orders are in the best interest of the minor child and what the parties desire the Court to order and decree.

3. That the parties were married on May 25, 2013, in Ft. Myers, Florida, and have been since that time, husband and wife.

4. That of the parties' marriage, one (1) child has been born, to wit: E.L., born September of 2015. No other children have been born or adopted during the course of the marriage and the Petitioner is not now pregnant.

5. That a state of irreconcilable incompatibility has arisen between the parties hereto which has completely destroyed the legitimate aims of the marriage and rendered its continuation impossible; by reason of which, each party is entitled to a divorce from the other.

6. That the District Court in and for Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, has the sole and exclusive jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, 43 O.S. 2001 § 555-101 et seq., for the following reasons:

- a. Oklahoma has been the child's home state within six (6) months before the commencement of the instant proceeding;
- b. It is in the best interest and welfare of the child that the District Court in and for Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, assume jurisdiction because the child has a significant connection with this jurisdiction;
- c. It is in the best interest and welfare of said child that the District Court in and for Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, assume jurisdiction because there is available in this jurisdiction substantial evidence concerning the child's past and future care, protection, training and personal relationships;

- d. No other state has jurisdiction in this matter under 43 O.S. 2001 § 551-201 of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act;
- e. The child currently resides in Tulsa County at both Petitioner and Respondent's residences;
- f. The parties have not participated nor are now participating, as parties, witnesses or in any other capacity, in any other proceeding concerning the custody or visitation with the child;
- g. The parties have no knowledge of any other proceeding that could affect the current proceeding, including proceedings for enforcement and proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights or adoptions;
- h. The parties have no knowledge of any person not a party to this proceeding who has physical custody of the child or claims right of legal custody or physical custody of, or visitation with, the child.

7. That neither the federal nor the state Indian Child Welfare Acts, 25 U.S.C. § 1901, et seq., and Okla. Stat. tit. 10 § 40, et seq., respectively, apply to these proceedings.

8. That the parties are both fit and proper persons to be awarded joint custody of the minor child, and the parties have presented a Joint Custody Plan to this Court in accordance with 43 O.S. § 109 and such Joint Custody Plan is in the best interests of the child and its terms and provisions should be adopted as the Order of this Court and filed contemporaneously herewith.

9. That in accordance with the provisions of 43 O.S. § 112.3, if either party ("the relocating party") intends to move his or her primary residence or intends to move the primary residence of the minor child of the parties over thirty (30) miles for a period of thirty (30) days or more when such move is not a temporary absence from the children's principal residence:

- a. The relocating party shall furnish the following information to the other party on the terms set out herein:

 2. The new mailing address, if not the same;

- b. The relocating party shall give notice of the proposed relocation of the child or the proposed change of the party's residence address to the other party on or before the sixtieth (60th) day before the proposed change. If the relocating party did not know and could not have reasonably known of the change in sufficient time to provide a sixty-day (60) notice, then such party shall give notice of the change on or before the tenth (10th) day after the date that he or she knows of the change.

- c. The obligation of a party to give the notices and to provide the information set out herein shall continue so long as that party is entitled to custody of or visitation with the child covered by this order.
- d. The failure of a party to give the notices and to provide information set out herein may result in further litigation to enforce the order, including contempt of court.
- e. The failure of a party to notify of a relocation of the child may be taken into account in a modification of custody of, visitation with, possession of, or access to, the child. The Court may assess reasonable attorney fees and costs against a party who fails to give the required notice.

If a party who receives notice of the intent of the other party to relocate the residence of the child does not file, within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice, a proceeding seeking a temporary or permanent order to prevent the relocation, the relocation is authorized.

10. That child support shall be paid in accordance with the Oklahoma Child Support Guidelines, a copy of which is attached hereto. No child support is owed by either party to the other at this time. Pursuant to the provisions of 43 O.S. § 112(E), the parties' child shall be entitled to support until reaching the age of eighteen, provided, that the dependent child is regularly and continuously attending high school, said child shall be entitled to support through the age of twenty years.

child not reimbursed by insurance, including but not limited to, all applicable deductibles.
